CLASS "C" PREP STANDOUT
DOUG SELVIG JOINS GRIZZLY
BASKETBALL PROGRAM

MISSOULA--

The Most Valuable Player of the Class "C" Montana championships, Doug Selvig from Outlook High School in Plentywood, has signed a national letter of intent to play basketball at the University of Montana. The announcement was made by Grizzly coach Mike Montgomery.

The 6-3½, 165-pounder was a first team all-state, all-district and all-divisional player at Outlook. His team won the state championship in 1980, and had a 23-3 record. His high school coach was Rollie Sullivan.

Selvig, who was also selected to play in the Montana-Wyoming all-star game, averaged 22.5 points, 14.2 rebounds and 5 assists per game his senior season.

"We think Doug has a chance to be the best of the Selvig family in basketball," said Montgomery, who was referring to the fact that Doug's brother Robin (now head women's coach at UM) played for the Grizzlies, and his sister, Sandy plays for the Lady Grizzlies.

"He comes from a long line of good basketball players," Montgomery said. "At 6-3½, and potentially 6-4 or taller, with natural maturation and strength he could be a great basketball player," the coach continued. "He has great hands, and is a very fine scorer and passer. We are also very excited to have a player of Doug's caliber from the Eastern part of the state in our program."

A three-year starter as a prep, Selvig was all-conference as a junior. He also competes in baseball, playing shortstop for the Plentywood American Legion team.

"I can't wait to play for the Grizzlies," Selvig said via a telephone conversation recently. "Rob talked about it a lot, and I'm looking forward to getting a chance to play at Montana.
